

A.

1. Because she felt she was a burden to her parents and at school she had a constant fear of rejection, so she found it hard to trust other people and to become friendly with them.
2. She was wandering the corridors of the school at lunch break because she had no one in particular to hang around with.
3. Because she vowed to return the next day to explore the piano some more.
4. Because Molly had never had any formal training on the piano.
5. All about quavers, semi-quavers, chords, semi-tones and tonic solfa and how to play pieces by composers like Beethoven and Mozart.

B.

1. b; 2. c; 3. a; 4. d; 5. b; 6. c.

C.

1. Entertainment; 2. Packs; 3. Fortunate;
4. Depiction; 5. Anxiously.

D.

Molly did not really mix that well with other children in her class.
The piano in the music room was very rarely used.

Molly was almost late for class because she was so caught up in her playing. The teachers were patrolling the corridors because it was raining. Despite learning music by some of the great composers, Molly still liked to play songs that she heard on the radio. Miss Holland's friend worked for the National Concert Hall.

E.

1. Mark was on the team although he never went to training.
2. Sarah might have gotten an 'A' in her exam but she had not attempted the more difficult questions.
3. Maria was hoping to go to the music festival despite the fact that she did not have a ticket.
4. You cannot use the new motorway unless you pay the toll.
5. The winning driver took the last bend sharply so the runner-up had to run wide.

F.

Personal answers

G.

Personal answers