

Starlight Answers Week 3 25th-29th January

Page 66 QA

1. The baby brother threw the ice cream at the walls/dumped apple juice in his Mammy's coffee mug/he tore the wrapping paper off the brand new toys/ he pounded the presents to see which one made the loudest noise. (you only need 2)
2. I don't think the poet was angry because in the last verse of the poem he said "we've never had a party that was such fantastic fun".
3. The poet describes the birthday in many ways. She says "it must have ten wheels painted blue, green and pink and be driven by clowns" and "I bet it shines like the sun on a lake. I've heard it brings parties with ice-cream and cake".
4. The girl is very excited in the second poem.
5. The theme of the two poems is "birthdays" and excitement.
