

A.

1. Because people were puzzled by the circles on the soccer pitch in the oval.
2. Madeleine was worried that people would find out that she and Jessica had made the circles.
3. That the marks in the circles showed that someone had mown the grass rather than flattening it with an alien spaceship.
4. Because the circles were perfect and he did not believe an "idiot" could create a circle with such precision.
5. That the circles were part of a reality TV show.

B.

1. b; 2. b; 3. d; 4. a; 5. d; 6. d.

C.

1. Cavernous; 2. Native; 3. Best-seller;
4. Advised; 5. Considered; 6. Inquisitively.

D.

1. c; 2. c; 3. d; 4. b; 5. a.

E.

I look around the Irish army barracks. Our lives together have been a series of struggles and triumphs and in enduring those together we have become the soldiers we are today. The family that we have created together extends far beyond our barracks to the homes we represent, to our parents and our families. Johnny's son may only have three actual uncles, but within this camp, he has another forty. In the old days we would have been known as a clan.

F.

Personal answers

G.

Personal answers